

La paresse
est la forme la plus active de l'inconscient

A black and white photograph of a landscape. The top half of the image is a dark, almost black sky. Below the sky is a bright, hazy horizon line that appears to be a layer of clouds or smoke. The bottom half of the image is a dark, textured ground surface, possibly a field or a forest floor. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

Expansion de l'univers qui court pour rattraper son ombre

Quand ça n'a jamais

Il a cherché dans sa voix une forme acceptable du silence

Le style
est son unique revanche sur la vie
